The National Education Committee of Na'amat is creating a new series called "This is My Passion" to educate others about what we do and to give more women reason to join our wonderful charity!

Please describe what aspect of belonging to Na'amat or the services Na'amat provides that you are passionate about.